Quarterly Activities/Project Description*
The City initially prepared to serve 240 households with Homelessness Prevention funds and 30 households with Homeless Assistance funds. At the end of this quarter, the City's HPRP grant has served 223 households with Homelessness Prevention funds and 24 households with Homeless Assistance funds. The HPRP budgets were adjusted to include additional funds in Case Management and decreasing the Financial Assistance. The rationale for this change is the fact that clients are utilizing less than the anticipated amounts to become stabilized.
