

Emergency Effluent Pump Station

The emergency effluent pump station is only used to keep the plant in service when Mad River floods to a point that the plant can't discharge by gravity. There are three 16.5 mgd pumps in the chlorine contact basin that discharge into the effluent diversion structure. Only two pumps can run at a time with one backup pump. The pumps can be controlled manually or by the SCADA system.

Emergency Effluent Pump Station